

My 2nd and 3rd preference were space station:controls and communication and rover . We will learn how to develop and validate the communication and control system. This attracted me so much. Working on such projects provide opportunities for innovation in areas such as robotics ,automation, communication etc. And I have a genuine interest in exploring space station operations, how communication system works in harsh environment of space .That's why I am very excited !!